MAINE VICTORY BLOW TO LEAGUE

MacSwiney's Death Will Menace Irish Peace

WOULD KILL HOPES FOR COMPROMISE

Death of Lord Mayor Would Break Off Negotiations

PASSES BAD NIGHT

Enters Thirty-third Day of Fast in Weaker Condition

(By the Associated Press)
LONDON—Negotiations for settlement of the Irish question, which are described as the most promising yet initiated, will be nullified if MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, dies in Brixton prison, says the Dublin correspondent of the Times.

Secret negotiations on the basis of full self-government within the empire have been going on the last three weeks between the most prominent leaders of modern opinion and influential republicans, he declares. The moderates have been told, he adds, that nothing further can be done while MacSwiney is near death, and if the lord mayor dies the last hope of settlement on the proposed basis will disappear. Appointment of an additional under-secretary for Ireland has been decided upon by the government. It will be his duty to deal with all problems which may arise in the six counties of the province of Ulster, the unionist stronghold in Ireland.

MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, was appreciably weaker this morning as a result of his hunger strike, says a bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination league, and added, MacSwiney had a very bad night, but he was still conscious and his mind was active. Today is the thirty-third day since he began his hunger strike in protest against his arrest by British authorities in Cork.

Reports to the home office from prison physicians did not agree with the bulletin issued by the league. They reported there was virtually no change in MacSwiney's condition, and that he had passed a restful night.

Husband of Drowned

Heiress Tries Escape

WASHINGTON—Roy H. Kuehling, held by the police as a witness in connection with the drowning of his wife, Mrs. Gertrude Viger Kuehling, part heir to a million dollar estate in Detroit, attempted to escape last night from a police station. He was detained in a witness room and had removed a panel from the room door when the police discovered his attempt. A grand jury investigation of the death of Mrs. Kuehling was started today. A coroner's jury found that the woman was drowned by the capsizing of a canoe in which she was riding with her husband.

Says School Boards Use Methods of Labor Baiting Corporations

E. D. MacDougall Has Been Here Addressing Unions on Subject of Teachers' Organizations; Comes From Kansas

SCHOOL boards generally throughout Wisconsin and other states, are using the same methods to prevent teachers from organizing to improve conditions of employment, that the union-baiting corporations are using to keep their employees from organizing. Teachers are being told they must withdraw from their unions or lose their jobs. Those not in the unions are warned that if they join they will be fired.

So at least says E. D. MacDougall, who has been in Madison for several days, and who has been giving talks to the labor unions of the city on what they can do and ought to do to improve Madison schools. He believes that the only way to combat the "closed shop" policy of the school boards is for the labor men to interest themselves more in the choice of school board members and also to bring their influence to bear on school boards, to get them to take a fair and liberal stand on the question of teachers' unions.

Mr. MacDougall, who is a teacher himself, and editor of the Kansas School Journal, says the teachers are helpless without a stronger public sentiment to back them up in their organization movement. In some cases, he says, salaries of teachers have been advanced, with an understanding or agreement that union affiliations should be abandoned.

In most places where pressure has been brought to bear, the teachers have yielded and have surrendered their union charters.

Former Champ Sentenced for Violation of Mann Act

CHICAGO—Jack Johnson, former world's-heavyweight champion, was sentenced to one year and a day in Leavenworth penitentiary and fined $1,000 today by Federal Judge George A. Carpenter for violation of the Mann act.

The sentence reaffirmed that passed on Johnson in 1913, when he was convicted of transporting a white girl from Pittsburgh to Chicago for immoral purposes.

Johnson later fled to Europe forfeiting his $30,000 bonds, and from then until a few weeks ago, when he surrendered on the lower California border, he was a fugitive from justice.

Johnson was smiling broadly when he entered the court room. When sentence was passed, however, he appeared much cast down, as he had hoped for greater leniency. Permission was granted his attorney to file a writ of error and a stay of execution of the sentence was given until Saturday.

Judge Carpenter refused to release the prisoner and ordered him returned to the Geneva jail.

SETS FIRE TO NEW PAVILION

Waupa Veterinarian Confesses to Burning Dance Hall

(By the Associated Press)
WAUPACA, Wis.—A signed confession of Doctor Eugene Chapin, Waupaca county veterinarian, that he set fire to the new $5,000 dancing pavilion belonging to Fred Horne in the morning of Sept. 7, by pouring gasoline over the floor was in the hands of State Deputy fire marshal, W. E. Finnegan today.

After the fire was discovered a few partly filled with gasoline was found in a river near Chapin's home which led to his arrest, according to Finnegan. The dancing pavilion which was to be opened to the public the evening following the fire, is said to have been destroyed because of the ill feeling Chapin bore to the owner.

Confronted by evidence Chapin made a complete confession and said that he would plead guilty.

Italian Crisis Has Passed, Says Paper

ROME—Italy has passed through the crisis of the metal workers' movement, according to the Giornale d'Italia. In commenting upon the situation, the newspaper says: "Until last Saturday we were on the edge of bolshevism. The danger seems to be removed and leaders of workmen have become the heralds of necessity to produce more. We shall see whether they are able to induce their followers to do so."

B.B. CLARKE HEADS VETS OF COUNTY

Honor President of American Thresherman at Convention

VAN FARR TREASURER

55 Association Members in Madison for Annual Meet

The highest honor conferred by the Dane County Veterans' association was bestowed upon B. B. Clarke, president of the American Thresherman, when he was elected president of the organization for the ensuing year, at a business meeting this noon. The honor was a double one, as Mr. Clarke is not a union soldier or member of the organization.

The step was taken, following a motion by H. L. Van Farr, Madison, a member of the association who declared that there is no man in the county who has done more than Mr. Clarke for the soldiers, and has taken such a sincere and heartfelt interest in them. The motion at first met some opposition, as it was felt that this position should be held by a member of the organization, but a motion was made and carried to have the election made unanimous.

H. L. Van Farr was unanimously chosen secretary-treasurer for the coming year.

Swapping reminiscences and relating tales of the civil war, 53 old veterans of the association spent the morning enjoyably. At noon a luncheon was served them by the woman's corps, and in the afternoon a business meeting was held. This evening the annual campfire celebration will take place, most of the veterans remaining in the city for it. M. B. Olbrich will deliver the address. A parade around the capitol square will take place at 7 o'clock.

Those attending are: M. P. Wheeler, Windsor; W. G. L. Matts, Verona; N. H. Ellis, Mazomanie; William H. Hobbs and K. L. Thompson, Madison; W. R. Cummins, Plattville; J. J. Rhodes, Madison; A. S. Hinshaw Flings Dry Quiz at Gov. Cox

CHICAGO—Virgil G. Hinshaw, today made public a telegram sent by him to Gov. Cox asking him to define his position on the question of opposition to an increased alcoholic content in beverages. Referring to the democratic nominee's statement yesterday that "the liquor issue is dead," Mr. Hinshaw's message adds that the women's prohibition league, W. C. T. U., and prohibition national committee has repeatedly asked him to say whether "if elected president you would use your legislative power to prevent the passage of a law increasing the alcoholic content in beverages above one-half of one per cent as now provided?" In conclusion the message says: "Why not answer this question openly and frankly? Cease to camouflage."

BOLSHEVISTS BEAT BACK POLISH ARMY

Soviet Forces Launch New Drive, Says Moscow Report

(By the Associated Press)
LONDON—The Russian soviet forces it is reported from Moscow have taken the offensive on both sides of Brody, near the old Galician border, and are marching on Lemberg, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Berlin dated Monday.

The Polish and Ukrainian troops, it is declared, have been driven back by the Russian cavalry.

Serious anti-bolshevik rioting is taking place in Petrograd, it is declared in reports from that city received in Berlin, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from the German capital, filed yesterday.

Six of the bolshevik commissioners, it is asserted, have been drowned in the Neva, while the others have been compelled to seek places of refuge.

Rioting took place in Petrograd when news of the soviet military defeats reached there, according to a report received through Copenhagen. The rioting, the report declared, assumed the proportions of a counter-revolution, and many of the commissioners were killed.

At the foreign office, it was said, credit was given the Copenhagen dispatch, except for one portion of it was declared the soviet fleet had mutinied and fired on Kronstadt.

SEBASTOPOL, Crimea—Troops commanded by Gen. Baron Wrangel on the Taurida front, northwest of the sea of Azov, have surprised and captured in the Orlovsk region, including its staff and trains, according to reports.

Soviet forces on this front are on the defensive and appear to have become exhausted as the result of their recent offensive campaign in Poland.

NO DEMOCRATS WIN PLACE ON CO. TICKET

Fail to Get Enough Votes to Win a Party Designation

POLL UNDER 200

457 Votes Required Under the Law to Win Place; Huber Unopposed

Democratic candidates for county offices and legislative offices in Dane county have failed to get enough votes at the recent primary to entitle them to a designation on the democratic ticket at the coming election.

The democrats had to write in the names of their candidates at the recent primary. Enough were not written in, however, to win a party designation.

At the election two years ago H. A. Moehlenpach, candidate for governor, polled 4537 votes in Dane county. The law provides that a candidate in order to get a party designation must get at least 10 per cent of the party vote two years ago.

This means that candidates for county offices would have to poll 454 votes. Otto Burmeister, who was written in as the democratic candidate for state senator, was only polled about 163 votes. There will therefore be no democratic opponent against H. A. Huber, the republican nominee.

W. T. Kelsey, democratic candidate for the assembly, failed to receive enough votes to qualify in the first assembly district, and Herman Sacktion will be unopposed.

The rest of the candidates will not poll over 175 votes in the county.

CONNECTICUT IS FOR SUFFRAGE

Ratification is Achieved Today by Concurrent Action

(By the Associated Press)
HARTFORD, Conn.—The Connecticut legislature this afternoon by concurrent action ratified the woman suffrage amendment to the federal constitution, making Connecticut the 37th state to ratify.

The vote in the house on the resolution of ratification was: Yes, 216; no, 11.

In the senate there was no vote in opposition. Senator Brooks, who has opposed woman suffrage, declared before the legislature. He said he would vote for a similar resolution today when Gov. Holcomb sends in a copy of the certified amendment, which was sent to him by Secretary of State Colby.

The action of the legislature was in direct opposition to the attitude of the governor, who earlier in the day called a special session for next Tuesday to act upon suffrage ratification.

MARION, O.—Senator Harding, when informed Monday night of the republican victory in the Maine election, issued the following statement:

"The result in Maine is reassurance that the American people mean to return to representative government under the constitution through the agency of the republican party, and that Maine takes the lead in declaring for America unmortgaged to the old world but still ready to serve humanity as American conscience impels."

NEW YORK—William H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, commenting on election results in Maine, said: "Maine has pointed the way. The results give the greatest reassurance to all well-wishers of good government, regardless of past party affiliations. 'The women, too, have demonstrated their dependability in this fare of the republic.'"

BLAINE'S LEAD IS CLIMBING

Official Figures From 17 Counties Show Gain of 1433

On the first 17 counties that have sent in official figures on the results of the recent primaries John J. Blaine has gained 1433 votes over the tabulations that were made by The Capital Times on 2147 precincts. The Capital Times figures for 2187 precincts showed: Blaine, 104,753; Wilcox, 97,013.

It is now believed that Blaine's plurality will run 10,000 or better. Marinette county was missing in The Capital Times' tabulations. The vote there was: Blaine, 373; Wilcox, 325.

On the first 17 counties reporting Blaine gained 3804 votes on the official figures, while Wilcox gained 2371.

Tabulations are now being made in the secretary of state's office and the canvassing board consisting of the secretary of state, attorney general and state treasurer will meet to canvass the vote.

Biggest Plurality in History Obtained by Republican

McIntyre Snowed Under; Women Aid in Getting Landslide

(By the Associated Press)

PORTLAND, Maine—Maine gave an overwhelming plurality to the Republican ticket in the state election yesterday. With a total vote larger by 55,000 than the highest ever previously cast in the state, Frederic H. Parkhurst, of Bangor, was elected governor by a margin of 65,000 over his democratic opponent, Bertrand G. McIntyre, of Norway.

The plurality was 17,000 more than the largest obtained by any other gubernatorial candidate in the history of the state.

Four republican congressmen were elected by large pluralities. Congressman Wallace H. White, Jr.,

WHAT COX SAYS

WEISER, Idaho—Gov. James M. Cox, democratic presidential candidate, who is enroute to Salt Lake City, today made the following statement on the Maine election:

"The result in Maine is no surprise. The majority is accounted for by the augmented total vote. Republican National Chairman Hays went into the state early and that clearly meant that Maine was to be prepared as the prototype of a display for this campaign. But neither prototype nor money can win the fight. It will be decided outside of Maine. In the 1916 September election the republicans carried Maine and yet in November Pres. Wilson carried 30 states and divided the electoral vote in West Virginia."

John A. Peters and Ira G. Hersey, retained their seats, and in the first district, where Congressman Louis B. Goodall, republican, did not seek re-election, Carroll L. Beedy of Portland, republican, was chosen.

Whole Senate G. O. P.

Every member of the state senate will be a republican, while of a membership of 151 in the state house of representatives the democrats succeeded in electing 15. In the last legislative session there were two democratic senators and 41 democratic representatives.

The vote for governor, with returns from 40 small towns and plantations missing, was:

Parkhurst (rep.) 133,317.
McIntyre (dem.) 69,249.

The increase in the total vote was very largely accounted for by the presence of women at the polls.

Women Flock to Polls.
Women showed themselves eager to grasp the opportunity of exercising their new privilege and they were undaunted by a heavy downpour of rain.

The result showed most of them voted the republican ticket.

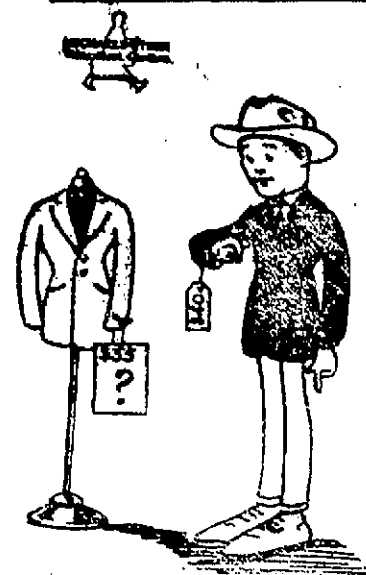

Democratic state leaders were silent as to possible significance of the vote with relation to the presidential election in November. Col. Parkhurst, after being assured of his election, pointed out that the campaign had been vigorously contested by the democrats on national issues and said the outcome gave "most conclusive evidence that the voters of Maine resent the autocratic and un-American administration that the democrats have given us. He declared that it was 'equal' to an endorsement of Harding and Coolidge."

League Chief Theme.
Matters of merely state importance were hardly touched upon in the campaign. Both parties strove to effect a good showing in the "barometer state," the only state to hold its election in advance of the voting for president. For the republicans, addresses were delivered by Gov. Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, vice presidential nominee; Sen. Lodge, Sen. Frazier, haysen and others. The democrats sent into the state Franklin D. Roosevelt, candidate for vice president.

SEN. HARDING WOULD LIMIT IMMIGRATION

Nominee Declares Nation Should Stand Behind Pacific States

ANSWERS COX CHARGE

Declares "Senatorial Oligarchy" Forced Democrats Into Efficiency

(By the Associated Press)
MARION, O.—To a delegation of Californians Sen. Harding declared today that the nation must "stand behind" the states of the Pacific coast to relieve them of the difficulties of Oriental immigration and must see that only such aliens as can be assimilated and imbued with thorough Americanism are admitted.

The dangers of racial conflict, he said, must be recognized and provision made to reduce them to a minimum. He suggested that such steps could be taken without offensive reflection on any race and without raising the question of racial inferiority or inequality.

In his speech the senator suggested the necessity of a protective tariff levy to aid American farmers and replied to democratic charges of a republican "senatorial oligarchy." He reminded the voters that senators are elected by popular vote, and declared the democratic leaders were opposing senate influence because they wanted to perpetuate "autocratic, personal government."

Gov. Stephens acted as spokesman for the delegation and emphasized the keen interest of the west coast in the Oriental question, the tariff and other issues.

In his reference to the senate oligarchy charge, the nominee declared it was not surprising that the democrats should be displeased because congress had exercised its constitutional powers during "a seven year period of fine words, much diction, tinkering with business and unwarranted assumption" by the executive.

"The senate 'oligarchy,' as they call it, and the 'oligarchy' of the house of representatives," he continued, "forced them toward efficiency in making war and forced them toward some efficiency, though belated, in reconstruction for peace, and interfered to stay the prodigal waste of taxpayers' money, and prevented America from being caught in the snares and tangles of their blundering in Paris."

BALTIMORE, Md.—Now that women have been given the vote they should exercise this privilege "not only as a right, but as a duty," Cardinal Gibbons said to newspapermen today. WOOL MARKET TAKES BOOST

Work of Wool Pool in State Progressing Favorably

The division of markets reports a better condition of the wool market. Little wool is being moved and the large goods firms are becoming more interested and buying small lots here and there. The American Woolen Co. announced the opening of their preparatory departments on Monday which brings some hope for a resumption of trading in wool. Within the next 30 days a change for the better is looked for and farmers who have held their wool will most likely profit.

The work of the wool pool in this state is progressing favorably. Wool is being shipped to the central warehouse at Chicago where it is being graded and held until the market is right for selling. Reports from other states where farmers' pools are operating show that the farmers are holding fast and are not disposed to sell until a favorable price is received. There are reports that a national wool pool may be organized later on. This would provide for the state pools all joined together in a national pool which plan would eliminate competition between the various state pools.

Bitter Illinois Fight
CHICAGO—One of the bitterest primary campaigns in Illinois' political history closed today with leaders of the two republican factions centering their fight on the gubernatorial nomination. At the polls tomorrow democrats and republicans will nominate candidates for senator, representatives and various state offices, in addition to governor. Len Small, former speaker of the Illinois house, who is backed for the gubernatorial nomination by Mayor Thompson and his wing of the republican party, is opposed by John G. Oglesby, lieutenant governor, for whom Gov. Frank O. Lowden has taken the stump. Two other republicans, Oscar E. Carstrom and Edward N. Woodruff, are seeking the nomination.

On the democratic ticket James Hamilton Lewis, former senator, is opposed by Barrat O'Hara, former lieutenant governor. Seeking the nomination for senator on the republican ticket are W. E. If Nobody Wants the Coin We'll Take It

CHICAGO—Internal revenue department officials today began an investigation to account for the presence of $2,225,000 in the federal building vaults, with nothing on the books to show the source from which it came. The presence of the surplus was discovered when officials of a corporation called into explain why they had failed to pay $225,000 taxes produced receipts showing they had paid. The money was found in the vault but the government's duplicate receipt had been lost and no record made on the books. Most of the $2,225,000 remaining unaccounted for, is believed to have been collected as income taxes.

MADISON FIRE SYSTEM POOR

So Says Report of Fire Underwriters; Equipment Unsatisfactory

Delay that would result in case of emergency calls classifies the Madison fire fighting system as unsatisfactory in a report by the National Board of Fire Underwriters, which declares that while the distributing system is complete and well maintained, it is deficient in arterial feeders and the water distribution is thus limited.

The supply of both men and apparatus is considered deficient for an emergency, only one steam engine being kept in reserve, while appliances and salvage equipment are lacking entirely. The discipline of the department is considered good. The alarm system is thought to be below standard, the boxes being of poor design and unreliable and their distribution irregular.

The report commends the installation of water mains on 12 additional streets, erection of hydrants every 250 feet in the mercantile and manufacturing districts and one hydrant at every street intersection in other parts of the city, the addition of 10 men to the fire department, holding of regular drills, removal of fire alarm headquarters to a fire-proof building, installation of fire alarm boxes so every residence will be within 800 feet of a box, compulsory installation of automatic sprinklers in buildings which act as conflagration breeders and the protection of roofs and walls of defectively constructed buildings.

State Official is in Alleged Fraud

A charge of using a confidence game was brought against A. W. O'Keefe of the state highway department yesterday afternoon in superior court. He pleaded not guilty and was held under $500 bond furnished by an aunt. According to O'Keefe, he made out a check for $250 to a friend, explaining that he had no money in the bank at that time and receiving the friend's promise not to try to cash it for two weeks. The check was taken to the bank, however, and when the bank officials discovered that he had insufficient funds, they notified the police.

FOUGHT WAVES TO SAVE WIFE

Jack Jones Tells Story of Lake Michigan Tragedy

CHICAGO—The real story of the tragedy that interrupted and ended the honeymoon of Jack Jones of the Dillpickle club and his bride, Sunday morning, six miles off Windy Point, Wis., was told for the first time last night.

Jones, somewhat recovered from the harrowing state of mind that led to so much confusion in his tale, convinced the listeners that he spoke the truth.

He told how his wife died while he held her in his arm, and how she slipped from him into the hungry lake, and of how he clung to the boat for life, and how, eventually, he righted the craft and waited for the rescue.

Jones was terribly bruised and cut. His 18 hours in the water, his fight against almost overwhelming odds, and his efforts to right the board had painted his body black and blue and purple in spots—and there are red blotches where the skin was rubbed off or cut open. From head to foot he is a mass of wounds.

The police and the federal official who doubted Jones' story, or rather stories, when he was first taken to St. Luke's hospital at Racine, Sunday evening, praised him highly last night.

"No wonder he didn't know what he was talking about yesterday," said one of them. "After an experience like that, I would have gone mad."

7,500 Students Are Expected This Fall

The high water mark of attendance at the university will be reached this fall, it is expected, with an enrollment of some 7,500 students according to Dean S. H. Goodnight. Last year's registration was 6,920 and 600 more will probably attend this year. Registration days will be Sept. 20, 21 and 22, and classes begin at 8 a. m. Sept. 23.

The housing problem, it is believed, will be more acute than ever, and no important changes have been made in plans for handling the increased attendance. There are no empty houses in Madison, according to the building commissioner, Philip Dean.

PALMER TURNS DOWN AMNESTY

Tells Labor Leaders Gov- ernment Will Deal Individually

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON—Labor leaders asking general amnesty for political prisoners were told today by Atty. Gen. Palmer that the government would continue its policy of "considering the cases individually."

Replying to the appeals of President Gompers and former Rep. London, New York socialist, Mr. Palmer recited the 180 cases acted upon since the cessation of hostilities and predicted that "At the end of three months less than 100 of the persons convicted purely of violation of the espionage act will be left in jail."

Mr. Palmer told the delegation that he would inform the president what they had said, but further than that he could do nothing.

"You propose a general amnesty?" Mr. Palmer said. "Now I ask what and how do you interpret that? Is it by a general proclamation, and if so how will you differentiate the so-called political prisoners?"

"My judgment is that it would require a proclamation by the president dealing with every individual case. That, I suggest is exactly what we are now doing."

"I recognize some of the war legislation to which you object as necessary only under the exigency of war. I have advocated repeal of the espionage act and I have seen to it that no prosecutions under its provisions have been instituted since the armistice."

Daniel of Milwaukee, chief engineer of the Wisconsin inspection service, fire insurance rating, will explain the report just issued by the national organization on the fire facilities in Madison, to directors of the Association of Commerce who at the request of Leon A. Smith of the water department, asked Mr. Daniel to have an investigation made, according to a statement by Don B. Mowry of the Association of Commerce.

Mr. Smith suggested a rating for Madison, said Mr. Mowry, in view of the improvements in the water department, believing that the city could get lower fire rates. An investigation was made last spring and the report just published will not tend to lower the rates, it is understood.

MARKETS

WHEAT MARKET SLUMPS TODAY

Depression of Sterling Exchanges Has Bearish Effect

CHICAGO—Depression of sterling exchange had a bearish effect today on the wheat market. Rains in Argentina counted as an incentive to sell. On the resulting setback, houses with eastern connections were buyers, and there was a brisk milling demand. Prices, which varied from unchanged figures to 1/4 cents lower, with Dec. 2.48 1/2 to 2.49 and March 2.43 1/2 to 2.44, were followed by a material decline all around, and then something of a rally.

Assertions that seaboard exporters had entirely withdrawn from the market led to severe weakness later. The market closed almost demoralized, 7 1/2 @ 9 1/2 c. net lower, with Dec. 2.39 @ 2.40 and March 2.36 1/2.

Corn
Favorable weather and the decline in wheat led to breaks in the corn market. After opening 1/2 cents to 3/4 cents lower including Dec. at 1.18 1/2 to 1.19 the market continued to fall.

Subsequently notice of the shutting down of manufacturing plants at Peoria and Decatur, Illinois, was followed by a price drop to the lowest level yet this season for the December delivery. The close was nervous 4 1/2 @ 5 1/2 c. net lower with Dec. 1.14 1/2 @ 1.15.

Oats
Oats eased down with other grain, starting unchanged to 1/4 c. off and then undergoing a general sag.

Provisions
Higher quotations on Hogs strengthened provisions.

MRS. WILLIAMS RECEIVES MANY COMPLIMENTS

Friends Surprised at Wonderful Change in Her Appearance—Gives Tanlac Credit

"I am all the time praising Tanlac to my friends and I have a good reason for doing so, for it has relieved me of my troubles, and made me feel like a new person," declared Mrs. Roy Williams, of 818 National Ave., Milwaukee, the other day.

For two or three years before taking Tanlac my stomach was in a badly disordered condition. I was forced to give up coffee, meats, potatoes, everything fried or the least bit heavy, and even fruits, and to live on a diet of just the lightest foods. But no matter what I ate three or four times a week I had severe attacks of indigestion that nearly drove me wild.

"I suffered so from nausea that often I couldn't retain a thing, and at times I had severe pains in my side and the worst kind of cramping pains in my stomach. My complexion was muddy and sallow, I was weak and run-down, and in just about as bad condition as a person could be and still keep going."

"But from the way Tanlac took hold of these troubles it seemed as if it had been made especially for my case. I commenced to improve right off, and now I feel as well as I ever did. I have such an appetite I feel like eating all the time, and I can eat just anything I please and never have a touch of indigestion."

"My complexion has cleared up and my friends are constantly speaking of how much better I look. I have so much more strength and energy I feel good all the time, and I just can't say too much in praise of Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Madison by the Luckey Pharmacies, and in Mazomanie by Geo. A. Shields, in Mt. Horeb by C. C. Robertshaw, in Cambridge by Ole Bilstad, and by the leading druggists in every town.—Adv.

Explosion on Jap Cruiser Kills Five

TOKIO—Lieut. Hamada and four members of the crew of the Japanese battle cruiser Haruna were instantly killed when the ship prematurely exploded off Hokokaido, Monday. Several others were wounded.

GOOD-BYE, WEAK NERVES!

"Nothing wrong with my nerves." We hear it everywhere. Nervousness is a disease. A man or woman might better have a broken arm or leg than a shattered, run-down, nervous system.

Overwork and worry drains the nerve cells of all their strength and vitality; then come the sleepless nights, poor blood, nervousness, worry, and fear, that go with a run-down nervous system.

In cases of this kind, Phosphated Iron rarely fails to strengthen and build up the phosphate hungry nerve centers. It takes hold right from the start.

The way the majority of people "come back" is remarkable. You can almost see their nerves grow strong, steady and peaceful. Their eyes sparkle, their cheeks are filled out, and flushed with the healthy, ruddy glow that only pure, red, ironized blood can give, and their whole system is alive with youth, energy and good spirits.

Phosphated Iron will do all this for the old young if they will give it a chance. Get a box today and watch it build you up.

Ask for Phosphated Iron Capsules. For sale by C. H. Naffz, the Druggist, and leading Druggists everywhere.—Adv.

PUPILS WANTED FOR PIANO LESSONS Katherine Boltz 332 W. Dayton. R. 1668

CITY IN BRIEF

Unfair Competition—Using unfair methods of competition was a charge brought against the C. A. Strabel Cheese Co. of Green Bay and the Pauley and Pauley Co. of Manitowish by the Wisconsin Cheese Federation because of certain advertisements printed in the Sheboygan News and the Clintonville Tribune.

Reduce Draft Dodgers—Material reduction in the number of draft evaders in Wisconsin is being made through a survey of all enlisted men in the state, according to Adjutant General Holway. It has been found that many men who were on the draft lists had enlisted prior to the call in some foreign country, many in Poland and Canada. When the time came for them to report they were found missing and classed as deserters or draft dodgers. An order was issued last week to the adjutant general to check Wisconsin's record.

Count Primary Returns—Official count of the primary returns has been begun by the state canvassing board, consisting of Meritt Hall, secretary of state, John J. Blain, attorney general, and Henry Johnson, state treasurer. The count must be finished before the meeting of the party platform conventions Sept. 21.

Judge Hoppman Back—After an absence of more than two months, most of which was spent in winding up old cases and the remainder in undergoing an operation and recuperating, Judge Hoppman of the superior court resumed his work this morning.

Herbert F. Hansen, clerk of the circuit court, also was back at work after undergoing an operation on his nose.

Rate Hearings—A petition of the Cross County Light and Power Co. for a certificate of convenience and necessity to build electric lines around Cross Plains was heard yesterday by the railroad commission, which also held final hearing on the applications of the Oshkosh Street Railway Co. and the Oshkosh Gas Light Co. for increased rates.

Wants More Alimony—An action for increased alimony brought by Julia Kleppe against her former husband, Martin Kleppe, will be taken under advisement by Judge Stevens of the circuit court. She has been receiving $30 a month alimony and asks $100. She secured her decree several years ago.

Game Reserve—A game reserve, where there will be a closed season throughout the year, has been set aside by the conservation commission. It will cover the town of Wascott and Dairyland in Douglas county. Citizens of the townships petitioned the commission to set aside this land, claiming it to be the best deer and partridge country in the state. No person will be permitted to carry fire arms of any description on the land.

Inspects Corn—Prof. B. D. Liebh, breeder of corn resistant to the college of agriculture has inspected the experimental fields in Marinette county, where he gave the corn its principal test. The corn grown this season convinces him he has produced a strain that will yield the heaviest tonnage of silage of any corn grown in this latitude, as well as permitting much earlier planting.

Women Will Hunt—Only two women in Dane county have been issued licenses to hunt small game this year, according to County Clerk Fleistad, who up to yesterday had issued almost 900 licenses since the middle of August. The season opens Thursday.

New Corporations—Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday by the Moloch Co., Kaukauna, capital $750,000; Young Women's Christian association, Wausau, non-stock; Master Self-Locking Differential and Manufacturing Co., Neenah, $250,000; and E. J. Lachmann Co., Neenah, $50,000.

License to do business in this state was granted The Kappers Gas, Pittsburg, Pa., and the Western Gas Construction Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Amendments were filed by the Boyden Vernal, Co., Chippewa Falls, increasing capital to $60,000; Hotel Astor Co., Milwaukee, to $400,000, and the Danish Pride Milk Products Co., Sheboygan, to $600,000.

The crusade for better babies has spread from coast to coast, and taken firm hold of American Mothers. Few women realize how much the ill health of the mother influences the unborn child, both physically and mentally. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, which for nearly forty years has been the standard remedy for these ailments.—Adv.

MOTOR TRUCKS VICTORS 2 TO 1

Record Crowd Watches Sunday Game at Stoughton

STOUGHTON—The exceptionally fine weather Sunday drew to the ball park one of the largest crowds of fans seen at a Sunday ball game this summer. In the Cambridge team, the Motor Trucks found an aggregation that had considerable good material and especially was their pitcher, Strassburg, a rather formidable proposition for the locals. In the first inning the Motor Trucks courteously presented the visitors with a pair of runs, and in the second, they themselves received a gift of one score. The count stood thus until the last of the 8th when, with "Nels" Jerdee and "Pinky" Carroll on base, "Bullhead" Jerdee slammed out a two bagger. In attempting to catch Nels at the home plate the fielder threw away over the catcher, and Carroll, who was then on third, came home, being entitled to a base as the ball had been blocked before the catcher recovered it. There was little hitting done by either team.

Lars Vingom, who twice before has suffered apoplectic strokes, was stricken for the third time Saturday evening, and has since been unconscious, but his physician has not relinquished hope of his rallying. Since he was carried into the house, there has been no change in his condition.

Fall House Cleaning Time SPECIAL—Pillows Half Price September 13th to 27th

For above weeks (which is our annual fall cleaning time), we will launder pillows at 35 cents each (regular price 70c), and bed-ticks 75c (regular prices $1.25 to $2.00). Laundering these is the only sanitary method by which feathers can be cleaned, and our process enables us to do it without removing the feathers from the ticks.

We get the feathers thoroughly dry by gently tumbling them in a blast of hot air, which rapidly dries them and makes them as soft and fluffy as when new.

You owe it to yourself to have your pillows thoroughly renovated at least twice a year.

Now is also a good time to have your wool blankets taken care of. We have a special carding machine, which leaves your blankets as soft as new. Do not overlook your rugs and curtains. At your service.

BILLY WHISKERS

By FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY

Not stopping on the lower deck, after chewing the wires, they went on up until they reached the main saloon deck. It was ever so much wider and nicer than the deck of the cattle ship, and just now it was crowded with passengers who had hastily dressed themselves and had come out on deck to see what was the matter with the ship and its queer actions.

"Oh, there's my goat!" said a boy, who was standing at the rail just at the head of the stairway. It was Frank Brown and, walking up to Billy, he patted him on the neck. A bright faced young man who was with Frank also stooped over and patted Billy.

"Whose goat is this other one?" he asked, turning to pat Billy's mother, who, being jealous like most animals, crowded up to get her share of the attention.

"I don't know," said Frank. "It was picked up from a wreck; but the two goats seem to be very chummy."

Frank was looking along the deck at the long row of excitable passengers, and suddenly he began to laugh.

"I wish we could play some sort of a trick on all these people," he said.

The young man's face lit up with a smile as he gazed at the nervous and worried looking passengers, then all at once he laughed aloud.

"I've got it!" he cried. "Bring your goats and come into my cabin quickly. It's just inside here."

So Billy, willingly enough, was led by the horns into the young man's cabin, and his mother followed after. As soon as they had reached the cabin the young man rang the bell, and when the waiter came to him the young man gave him a check and sent him after a trunk which was soon brought up. Opening it, the young man took out an enormous dragon's head made of paper mache and painted in bright colors. It was a fierce looking head and almost filled the trunk. It had a great, double row of gleaming white teeth, red lips, a red tongue that worked in and out, immense saucer-like eyes and winged ears, while a "scary" looking spine started from the top of its nose and arched high over its neck. The balance of the trunk was filled with a long, thin, sack-like arrangement which was painted green and red and yellow, and which was to represent the dragon's body.

"You know I told you," said the young man, "that I am the property man of a big spectacular show company, and this is a new dragon that I have just had made. It is intended for men to get inside of to walk in across the stage. We'll put the goats in it and start them along the deck, and then we'll see some fun."

RECIPES FOR A DAY

Creamed Cheese on Toast—Melt one tablespoon butter, add three tablespoons flour, one-half teaspoon salt, mix, then add slowly one and one-half cups milk. Cook in double boiler, stirring constantly until thick. About five minutes before serving add three-quarters cup finely grated cheese and two tablespoons tomato catsup. Serve on half slices of delicately browned toast. Sprinkle over top with cayenne pepper.

Ragout of Salmon—For this dish use leftover baked salmon loaf. It is inexpensive and appetizing even to those who do not ordinarily care for fish. To one cup leftover salmon add one-half cup dry bread crumbs. Make a white sauce of two tablespoons butter, three tablespoons flour, one-half tablespoon salt and one and one-quarter cups milk. When thick—use double boiler—add the salmon and cook for ten minutes. Just before serving add one-quarter cup finely grated cheese, one-quarter cup sweet pickle cut up fine and one tablespoon peppers or pimento. This may be served in pattie shells, in which case use a thinner white sauce.

Thousand Island Salad—Pour over crisp head lettuce a dressing made as follows: Beat one egg, add one-quarter cup sugar, one-half teaspoon salt, pepper, one tablespoon prepared mustard, one-half cup vinegar, one and one-half cup water.

CANNING AND PRESERVING
Mixed Pickle—Three quarts of green tomatoes cut in pieces, one pint small cucumbers, one pint of large cucumbers pared and cut in pieces, let stand in salt water overnight, three stalks celery cut in pieces, one pint small onions, one pint beans, one small cauliflower. Cook carrots, celery, onions, beans and cauliflower in salt water till tender. Drain all in colander.

One pint muskmelon cut in pieces, one pint watermelon (white part) cut in pieces. Put two quarts of vinegar to heat, add two cups sugar; when hot add the ingredients, which have been well mixed, with one tablespoon mixed spices (omitting the little red peppers). Cook until tender, then add dressing.

Dressing: One tablespoon tumeric, two tablespoons flour, one-half tablespoon mustard; mix. Smooth with cold vinegar and add to the pickles.

Corn Salad—Cut corn from two dozen ears. Chop one large head of cabbage, four large onions, four green (sweet) peppers, one red pepper with seeds removed. Add one quart vinegar and boil until nearly done.

Mix three cups of sugar, one-half cup salt, one-quarter cup dry mustard, one teaspoon tumeric, three-quarters cup flour. Blend with another quart of vinegar and add to boiling salad. Boil one-half hour longer. Seal hot. This makes about eight quarts.

HEART AND HOME PROBLEMS

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: If a couple is separated, can the woman take the child away from her husband if she is as fit as he? She went with other men during their married life and he never took her any place. The child is now with his sisters who take care of her through the day and they have their evenings spoiled by her while he runs around nights. Do you think he should take care of her evenings while the sisters go for the evening? Give me your opinion, please.

A. B. C.
The law usually gives a child to its mother. If, however, her conduct during marriage would indicate that she would not be the right kind of mother for the child, some foster parents are found. Since neither the father nor the mother were faithful to their marriage, the child was given to the father's sisters, who are probably of good character. Doubtless they do not expect the man to stay home and take care of the little one. The child is their charge and they enjoy caring for it.

"Mrs. L. T. D.": You and your young husband certainly need advice which I cannot give you in my column. Go together to a physician and ask him to tell you things which will help you. At thirteen years of age you are too young.

"Leona": Since your parents do not object to your going with the young man, it will be all right to do so. Always remember that a girl cannot be too cautious in choosing her friends. In regard to your work, you are quite right in asking for bigger wage.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl nineteen years old and considered very good looking. I work all the time and my father never lets me go any place to enjoy myself. I never even go out with the other girls. I have a boy friend who calls to see me on Sunday afternoons, but I never go any place with him although he wants me to. I am in love with him and think he is with me. I have never caught him in a falsehood and he has never broken a date with me. He and I are going to get married soon, but I know my father will never give his consent. Do you think it would be wrong to run away? He is only twenty years old.

FOOLISH BLUE EYES.
A girl of nineteen should be allowed to go places within reason. If she is not, I don't blame her for running away to marry; it is the natural outcome of so restrained a life.

Both you and the young man are too young to assume the responsibilities of married life. The cost of living is extremely high and unless the man makes a good salary you would find yourselves miserably unfit to battle with the high cost.

I believe you should use your own judgment about going places. Never wilfully do anything that would compromise yourself or lead to future unhappiness. For your own interests you should choose friends with good characters. If your father forbids your leading a normal life at home I believe it would be all right for you to seek a good home elsewhere. Happiness results from right living. I cannot see why so many girls are loose and immoral when they have every reason to know suffering is the inevitable outcome.

Be true to yourself, doing only what you believe to be right, and you will work out a life of happiness whether you leave home or remain there.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young girl seventeen years old and have been going with a young man for almost two years. He is twenty-two years old. He has always been awfully good to me as for kindness and taking me places, but many times he has made dates with me and then gone with other girls instead of keeping my date.

I have scolded him about it, telling him that if he would rather go with some one else to tell me so and we would quit, but he said "no," that he cared for me. We have quit going together three times, but always made up again. Lately he has not gone with a soul because he rooms at my place and I suppose he thinks he had better go out for fear I would find it out. I have not gone with any one else since I have gone with him. At dances he gets angry because I dance with my boy friends twice. When his friends come he dances with them three or four times and he thinks it is all right. I don't care how many times he dances with anyone else, but I think if he does I could, too.

When I started going to dances I danced with all my friends, but now hardly any of them ask me because when they come after a dance my friend looks at them in such a crabby way as if he did not want them to ever come near me. I don't enjoy myself at all any more.

What should I do, quit him or not? I am very unhappy when I go with him. I do not love him and only care for him as a kind friend. Lately I have got so angry at him that I feel like telling him to go some place else to room. He is so jealous he is never happy in a crowd and neither am I, for I can't enjoy myself with the others without his getting angry. V. F. W.

You should free yourself from the young man in some way. Perhaps your mother will come to your assistance and ask him to find another room. Probably other young men will take notice if they find he is living elsewhere and they will understand that all is not smooth between you. It would be wise not to accept his invitations to go places because you only make yourself unhappy by going.

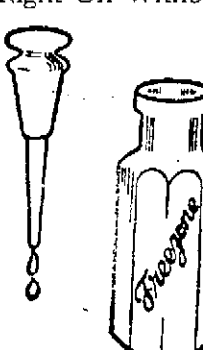

New Volcano Held To Be Safety Valve

NAPLES—Volcanic activity reported recently at the top of Pizzo d'Uccella, near Spezia, is not believed to be of a true plutonic nature by Prof. Mallatin, doctor of Vesuvius observatory. He declared today the appearance of tongues of flames and abundant smoke did not indicate than an active volcano had broken out, but that the mountain was simply a safety valve for the compressed gases beneath.

Be Young In Body, Mind and Looks Despite Your Years

How often you have wished that you could indulge in the strenuous exercise of out door sports with the vigor and enthusiasm of youth! But the end of the week finds you all in—you are tired, listless and lack the energy to go out for a vigorous walk or a round of the links—or any other exercise that requires much physical exertion. Many a man, even in his middle forties, has a vague feeling that he is "getting old"—and right at a time when he should be at his very best physically. And he is growing old, not in the sense that the years are pressing heavily upon him—but in the sense that his vital forces are wasting away faster than Nature replaces the worn out tissues.

Double Win Over Cubs As Reds Lose Puts Robins 5 Games Ahead

BROOKLYN TAKES BIG LEAD; HOSE OUTSLUG WASHINGTON; RUTH WINS GAME WITH 49TH

Indians Hold Lead by Trimming Mackmen Again; Toney Pitches Giants to Win Over Cards; Red Sox Trim Browns in 14th

WHAT the Brooklyn Dodgers didn't do to the Chicago Cubs yesterday wouldn't be worth mentioning. The Braves proved no match at all for the league leading athletes of Charley Ebbets and went down to defeat at their hands in both games of yesterday's double bill. The scores were 7 to 3 and 7 to 2. Pfeffer kept ten Cub hits well scattered in the first game, and the Brooklyn sluggers battered Alexander the Great out of the box. Martin, Bailey and Jones shared pitching duties for Chicago in the second, while Marmarou relieved Marmarou in the fourth inning for Brooklyn when the Cubs became dangerous. Marmarou finished the game in the style. The Brooklyn club now lead the National league by five full games, the biggest margin by which a club has held first place in either league this year.

The White Sox and the Washington Senators engaged in a slugfest yesterday with the honors all on the side of Chicago. Faber at one time gave the Griffs a three run lead, but this was made up in the sixth when Hap Felsch hit the ball into the bleachers with the bases loaded. The final score was 15 to 6. As the Yanks and Indians also won, the margin of games still remains the same. The Sox are a game from first place and a game and a half from second, as the Yanks in second place, are a half game in the lead by games won and lost. The percentage system of marking causes loss of difficulties.

Rede Ruth's home run in the sixth inning, his 49th of the season, won yesterday's game for New York from Detroit, 4 to 2. Ruth hit into the center field bleachers, scoring Elgie ahead of his overcoming a one run lead. Although hit harder than Hamke, Mays kept the blows scattered. In fielding a ball from Veach's bat in the sixth inning, Pratt was slightly hurt, but resumed play after receiving medical attention.

Cleveland made it two straight from Philadelphia, 3 to 2. Naylor was a puzzle until the fifth when the Indians bunched three hits and tied the score. The winning run was scored in the sixth on singles by Speaker and Gantner and Perkins' error.

The Giants shut out St. Louis, 7 to 0, getting to Dack in the second inning for five hits, including a triple and a home run. These with two passes and a sacrifice fly, netted six runs. The Cardinals then used two recruits pitchers, who held the Giants to one run.

Philadelphia broke its losing streak of six straight Monday by defeating Cincinnati, 6 to 2. Riser held the visitors helplessness and poked a home run into the center field bleachers in the third. Wrightson's home run over the right field fence and long hits by Rawlings and Meusel likewise featured.

Boston made it two straight from St. Louis by winning a 14 inning game, 6 to 4. Burwell, who replaced Bayne with the tying run on base in the eighth, weakened in the 14th and Myers scored the winning run on his base on balls, singles by Menckley and Vint and Hooper's sacrifice fly.

Scott was in excellent form, allowing three hits, and Boston won the first of its series with Pittsburgh, 5 to 0. Only four Pirates reached first base, Bigbee putting on when Ford fumbled in the sixth.

TILDEN IS NOW GREATEST NET STAR IN WORLD

Man Who Won World's Title at Wimbledon Establishes Supremacy

By JACK KEENE
William T. Tilden, 24, in winning the crown of the all comers' national lawn tennis singles has established a record that future players of the game will have difficulty in duplicating. In one season Tilden has won the crown of the indoor courts, the world's laurels in the tournament on the turf at Wimbledon, England, against the pick of the four quarters of the globe, and last, but by no means least, the call Pennsylvanian gathered in the honors of the United States.

Tilden, with due recognition of his great skill, received assistance in the way of timely luck that does not often fall to the lot of the few who seek honors on the courts.

The one weapon that Tilden made excellent use of was his service. It was the same service that had caused Norman E. Brookes to quail on the same courts a year ago. It had caused the admiration and the enthusiasm of the British crowds at Wimbledon. To men who have faced it is regarded as the fastest service in the world, even swifter than the ball Maurice E. McLoughlin used to send booming across the net when he was in his prime. By aid of this service, with which he called a total of sixteen aces for the match, Tilden made up for other deficiencies.

By his victory Tilden undoubtedly will move into the No. 1 place at the head of the ranking list, the place he long has coveted, next to the title of the all comers. In this respect Tilden's rise has been of the skyrocket order, for his name did not appear among the top men until the season of 1918, in which he ranked No. 2 to the No. 1 of R. L. Taylor Murray. He was No. 2 to Johnston last season.

Tilden brings the championship back to the holding of an eastern player for the first time since 1916, when A. Norris Williams, St. Cloud, played Johnston for the honors in five memorable sets. The new title holder is more advanced in years than the majority of the men who have won the honors. He was born in Germantown, which is a part of Philadelphia, on February 10, 1893. He stands six feet one inch in his playing shoes. His weight is 153 pounds.

Bob Menzel, whose indifferent playing caused Miller to relegate him to the bench several times this season, has suddenly taken a new grip on himself and playing the ball of which he is capable. Always a muddering hitter, Menzel has come to the realization that it takes more than mere slugging to get a man by in the major leagues. He is now fielding in improved style, and his attitude toward the game has changed. Where he once loafed on infield hits he is running them out and is on the horse at all times. During the western trip of the Yankees, Bob's oldest brother, who is not a ball player, visited him in Cleveland. In a heart to heart chat the brother told Bob just what was what in the big time and the athlete was wise enough to recognize the truth when he heard it.

PLAGUE IN BATEM.
CONSTANTINOPLE—Batem, at the east end of the Black sea has been placed under quarantine as a result of an outbreak of a plague.

Walsh, the Kipp pitcher, has got to form in the box and uses poor judgment on batters. The only way he could beat a team like the Tractors is to use a prayer book while pitching.

Jim Van Kulen says that Doc Meahan, the Kipp sparring writer, sure is a wicked press agent.

Kelly, the dog wagon lunch man, says to hell with ball games, but he knows Menckley is getting a nice collection of salt shakers for his wife.

Bebe Starkweather, the champion sporting bag of Madison, was asked how he liked the game. Mum is the word, he says; there is a cop chasing me now from giving my last opinion of the game.

ROUNDS RAZZBERRIES

Did you see these ball games at the Kipp park Saturday and Sunday? Good night!

They kill a ball player like Ray Chapman and let that Kipp team still live.

Tenny came in from the outfield once and told Walsh, the Kipp pitcher to walk a few men so he could get his breath back from chasing flies.

I can not see how they can call a team like the Janesville team "Tractors." Their business is speed.

Schwinn, the Tractor's shortstop, covers more ground than a Texas cyclone.

Here is what some of the fans thought of the double bill:

Eddie Schmitt of the Hub Clothing Co.—He did not see Rigning brothers this year, but saw plenty of clowns yesterday.

Tom Franey, the State st. barber.—No wonder the Kipp pay the amusement tax, as they are the only ones getting a laugh out of it.

Browne McFadden, the grocer, can not see why they do not charge the Kipp ball team to get in the park.

Hummel of the Kennedy Dairy Co.—What I want to say you will not print.

George Knoche—"I was scared to death that some one of the Kipp outfielders would get killed with line drives."

A lot of fans hung around the box office after the game expecting their money back.

Lawrence Franey, after watching the Kipp—"I still think I am a good ball player."

The stands were packed and a lot standing up and then the Kipp manager uses Wooten, the Tractor's pitcher, who pitched Saturday, on third base for them Sunday. The most important position on the team, and they claim Merkle pulled a boner.

Jim Van Kulen says that Doc Meahan, the Kipp sparring writer, sure is a wicked press agent.

Kelly, the dog wagon lunch man, says to hell with ball games, but he knows Menckley is getting a nice collection of salt shakers for his wife.

Bebe Starkweather, the champion sporting bag of Madison, was asked how he liked the game. Mum is the word, he says; there is a cop chasing me now from giving my last opinion of the game.

I will give a good bunch of credit to the Tractors; they got a real ball club.

The Kipp did not need a catcher.

PARK BOWLERS BEGIN ON WED.

Eight Clubs Swing Into Action on Schedule Tomorrow Night; Announce Players

Attention, Bowlers! A meeting of the Madison Bowling association will be held Sunday, Sept. 19, at 2:30 p. m. in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Every bowler is urged to attend.

The teams of the Park Alley league were picked at a meeting of the league captains held at the Park alleys, and the work of the season was planned. The league will open on schedule tomorrow night, the men taking the alleys at 8 p. m. All players are especially requested to be there on time.

Each team will be charged $3.75 per team for each night of bowling, $2.75 of the amount going for the bowling privilege, and the other $1 toward a fund to be divided among the winners at the close of the season. The usual prizes will be awarded. The teams were chosen as follows:

St. Paul A. A. Team Cinches League Flag

ST. PAUL, Minn.—St. Paul has won the 1920 championship of the American Association, its victory in one game of a doubleheader at Milwaukee yesterday furnishing the deciding points in the percentage column. It was announced today, that a postponed game with Minneapolis could not be played off, and this left only 29 games on the season's schedule, whereas they now have a lead of 22½ games over their nearest opponent, Minneapolis.

JAPS TAKE CENSUS
TOKIO—Japan's first census will be taken, beginning Oct. 1.

due to the fact Walsh, the Kipp pitcher, could not get any balls past the Tractor batters.

World's champion bowling team. All members are bonafide members of the Norn Bunk. The lineup: John Kenny, captain; King Bacon, Alvin Anderson, Fred Wylie, Glenn Stephens. This team has a challenge to meet any team in the world of one-legged bowlers.

Harman Sachjen is all smiles these days, owing to his great victory in the primaries. He ran very well around the Park alleys.

CHAMP BEGINS HARD TRAINING

Dempsey Opens Work for Battle With Bill Brennan in New York October 1

NEW YORK—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, left New York Monday night for Long Branch, where he will begin training for his 15 round bout to a decision with Bill Brennan at Madison Square Garden on Oct. 1. Before leaving Dempsey announced that he would probably start serious work on Thursday or Friday. This arrangement will give him a little less than two weeks in which to condition himself for his second battle in defense of his title within a month.

Dempsey will train at the Casino and will be assisted by big Bill Tate, his dusky sparring partner, who has been a member of the champion's camp ever since Jack started work for his bout with Jess Willard in Toledo; Mary Farrell, the local middleweight, who has jumped into prominence during the last year and a half; Doc McCormick, the Irish heavyweight whom Billy Gibson has in tow, and Harry Gray, the Philadelphia middleweight, who is trying to arrange a bout with Johnny Wilson for the middleweight championship. But Smith, who heads, train Dempsey for his bout with Billy Mike, will come out from Chicago to rub the champion.

Brennan has already started training at Diamond Hill, R. I. for one month. He will come here about 10 days before the fight to finish his training.

WHO WILL FILL CHICK'S SHOES. OHIO QUESTION

Stinchcomb, Harley's Old Running Mate, May be Ace of Coach Wilce's Eleven This Year

COLUMBUS, O.—Who will fill Harley's place at Ohio State? That's the question football fans all over the country are asking.

With the famous halfback at Ohio State in the capacity of assistant coach, the eyes of the pigskin world will be focused on the 1920 Starch and Gray machine to see how it stacks up without him in the lineup. For three years he was the superstar of the football drama here. In two of those years he eleven won the western conference title and in last year lost the golf only in the last eight seconds of play to Illinois.

Undeclared for two years, it was only through Harley's deftness, by dint of his nimble brain and bying legs that disaster was stayed off on several occasions. His ability to drop kick, place kick or punt also served his team in good stead many a time.

Stinchcomb's Successor
Admitting his preeminence among his teammates, followers of the Buckeye eleven, stoutly maintain if all goes well the Ohioans again will have to be reckoned with this fall.

Most of them point to "Pete" Stinchcomb, varsity quarterback of last year, as most likely to step into Harley's brogans. On any other team Stinchcomb would have been the outstanding star, they assert. In his high school days and as a freshman here he was reckoned as a great halfback.

Freshman No Slouch
But there is another who is being touted as the logical successor to the redoubtable "Chick." He is "Hobe" Workman, who last year captained the freshman team. He is heavier than Harley, an excellent open field runner, forward passer and punter. He unquestionably was the star of a crack freshman eleven last fall, and many believe he will outshine Stinchcomb this fall.

All admit, however, that only time can settle the question of the successor to the Harley crown in the hearts of Buckeye fans.

If America and her spirit are to live, they will live in spite of the snobishness of these lip-worshippers of liberty, and not because of any $300 celebrations: they may hold. Those ideals will live as a result of sober, earnest industry on the part of the common people, whom, as Lincoln said, God must love, because he made so many of them.
